Throughout the production of this book, we have tried to express a hope. This hope involves the harmony and unity of the people of Cradock and can best be expressed by a single, simple word; US! If we are to see this dream come true, this unity of all, we must take the initiative. Only we can put aside petty grievances and differences and make life at Cradock High School worth living.

Admiral Dedication Goes To Mr. Barley

It is not often that a man is blessed with outstanding characteristics as is our band director, Mr. Barley. Since coming to Cradock about six years ago, he has made the Cradock band one of the finest in the area. It takes a special person to draw talent from high school students and make it enjoyable at the same time. Mr. Barley is a fine musician, a good friend, and truly a fine man. To him, we dedicate the 1972 Admiral.

Happiness is Raindrops?

Wet. That is the word that best describes this year's homecoming festivities. Rain, life giving and beautiful, can also be very disappointing — especially disappointing to Betsy Bonner, Robbin Tyler, and their homecoming committee, who worked through the early hours of the morning preparing floats and other decorations only to see the many colors drip down into newly formed puddles on the cold parking lot. Though it may have seemed so, this experience was not a total loss. Much was shared and much was gained. Many new friendships developed while many old ones became closer and, in essence, this is what made it a homecoming well worth remembering.

Christmas Has Many Faces At CHS

Christmas Spirit is a wonderful feeling, especially the spirit felt at Cradock during this season of good will to all men. It would probably be impossible to describe or explain these emotions as it is equally impossible to describe the existence and function of human nature. Therefore, we shall not attempt this. We shall only say that there is a happiness in becoming human for a couple of weeks and a certain sadness in the fact that this feeling does not linger throughout the year.

Robbin Tyler Travels To San Antonio For The Bellamy Award

The 30th annual Bellamy Award was presented to McCollum High School and the state of Texas in October of 1971. Many people, who have closed their eyes and minds on the ideals on which our country is based, think of the award as simply a "flag-waving ceremony." But it is more than that. The most important aspects of the whole week were the mass exchange of communication and the creation of long lasting, and loving friendships. Who could ask for more?

The Bellamy Mob hijacks a little school bus!

On March 24 and 25 the circus came to Cradock. The fine arts department presented "On With the Show," a musical comedy. Young and old alike laughed at the clowns and were thrilled by the wonderful performance of the chorus and band members. Once again this year the fine arts department at Cradock is to be commended on a job well done.

Junior - Senior Prom

A prom can mean many things to different people. Some look forward to it and rejoice when the glad day arrives. Others see it as only another ritual to be observed. The juniors can look at their work and know that "Night Gallery" was truly a success. Memories of this wonderful night will linger forever.

Admirals

Muzzle

The Hounds

The 1971-72 Fighting Admirals were a young team. Despite handicaps and only two wins out of nine games, the Admirals showed noteworthy sportsmanship and spirit even in defeat.

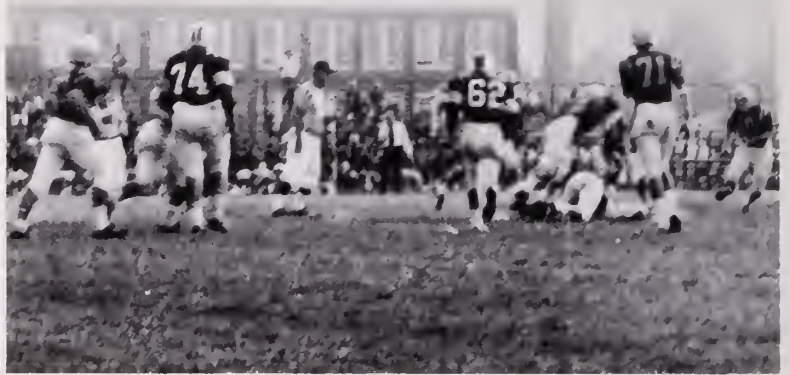

In spite of the early losses, the Admirals fought back to win against Norcom and Churchland. With the injury of the starting quarterback, Coach Wade was forced to recruit Keith Isbel (freshman) and David Monell (junior) who both show promise for the 1972-73 season.

Cradock JV: City Champions

The Baby Admirals, led by a new coach, Mr. John Thompson, carried off the city trophy. Despite the opening defeat to Great Bridge the J.V. team sprung back to win two straight games, a 12-6 victory over Deep Creek, and a 36-0 rout of Churchland. The season was shortened because of postponements, due to rain, of three games. But the weather held out long enough for the Mighty Baby Admirals to meet the Strong Baby Presidents of Wilson, for the City Championship. It was a hard fought game but the Admirals came out on top with a 6-0 victory.

Admirals Assasinate Presidents

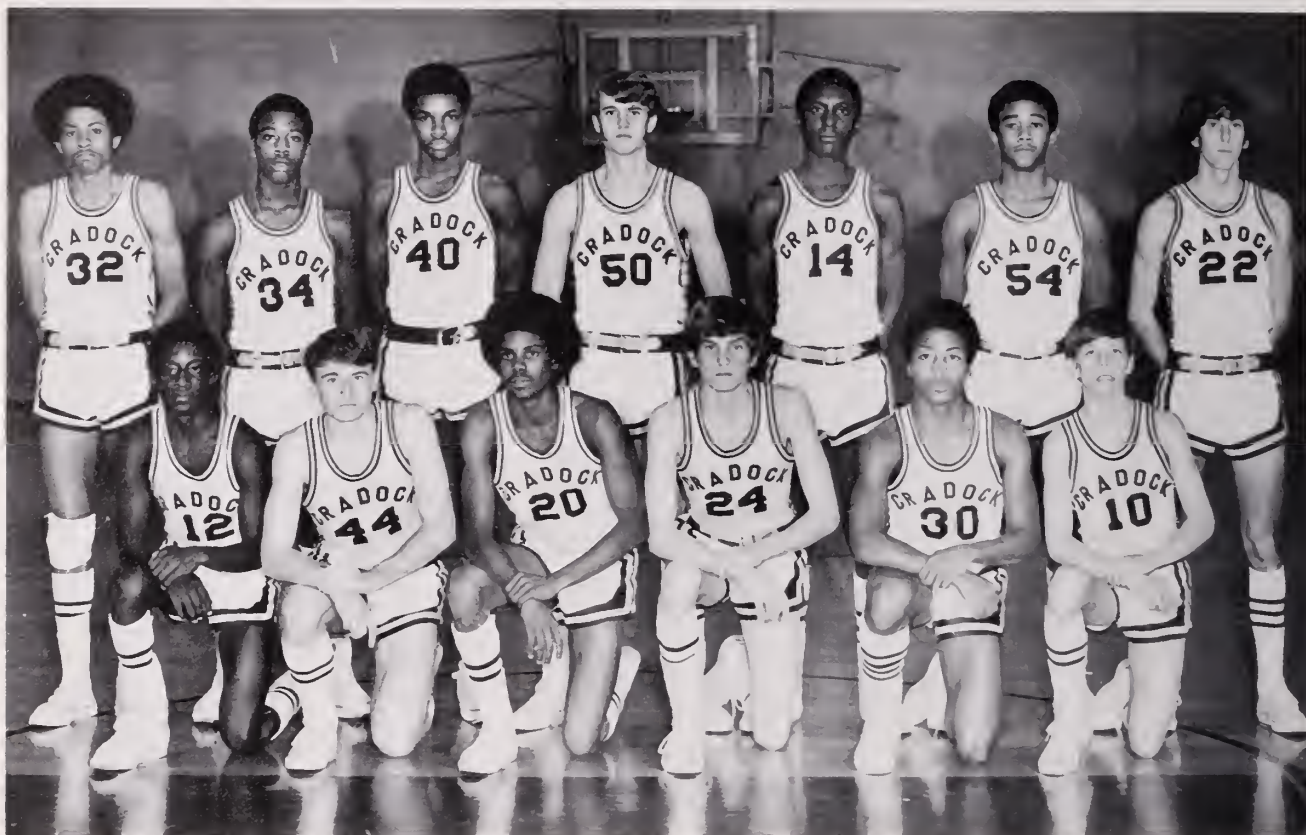

The agony of defeat in the earlier part of the season was somewhat lessened by the resounding victories over the Wilson Presidents and Oscar Smith Tigers. Building a team after the loss of most varsity stars and the injury of Dennis Askew, the starting guard, Coach Carson's fighting Admirals put forth a tremendous and praiseworthy effort. Despite the season, spirit and moral still run high and the team and school look forward to a better season next year.

Baby Admirals Show Great Promise

The Cradock J.V. Basketball team started the season with two big wins over archrivals Deep Creek and Western Branch. Due to the loss of one of their starting forwards, Lester Peters, the team suffered losses in their later games. With the help of the starting center, Dexter Cherry, and team members Kelly Miller and Glynn Moore, the J.V. managed to add one more victory to their record.

Mat Men Show Promise

The 1971-72 Admiral wrestling team showed outstanding sportsmanship both on and off the mat. The team was composed of many new wrestlers, a fact that proved important to the season's outcome. The fine coaching of Mr. Richard Hunneycutt and Mr. Thomas Bailey helped to send members of the team to the regional tournament. Members who participated included Richard (Truck) Grimsley, M. Draughen, Stanley Koonce, and Tommy Pollock. Steve Harmon also was an outstanding wrestler who placed fifth in the district. With the experience gained this year, the Admiral mat-men are looking forward to the '72-'73 season.

Cradock Works

For 73 Team

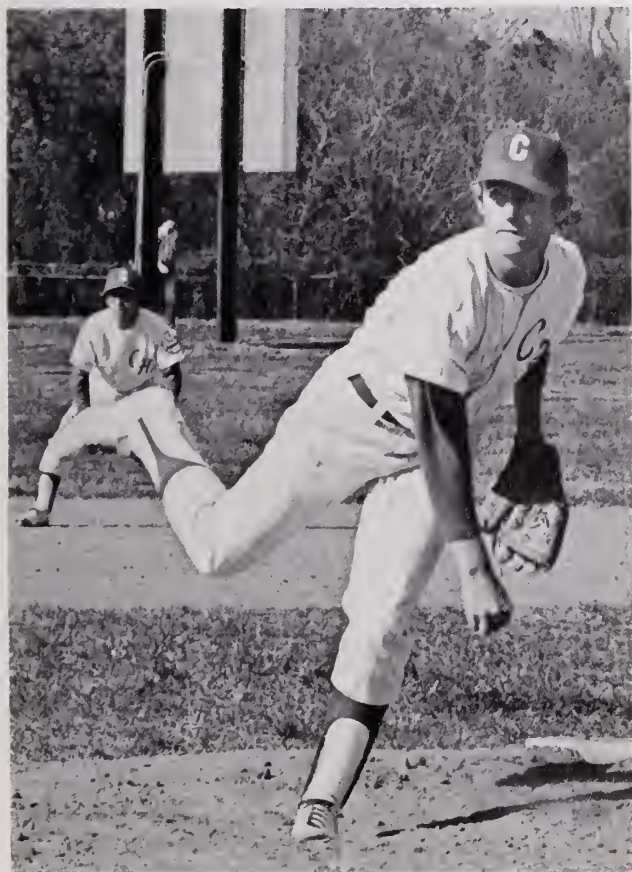

It was a youthful team that struggled hard over a rough season. With only four seniors returning, Coach Bell worked to organize a strong and viable team for the 1973 season. Coach Bell's last year as Varsity Coach was not full of the success that marked previous seasons. However, the team he coached exhibited unusual spirit and sportsmanship
